

WANK

Over Frauenmahd

START Wankbahn valley station
FINISH Wankbahn mountain station

The starting point of the hike is the parking lot at the Wankbahn cable car valley station. The tour continues along the forest road past the climbing garden and the Dax chapel towards the Esterbergalm. After 1 ½ to 2 hours, the tour branches off to the right onto a narrow, serpentine path to the Wank summit.

A detour to the Esterbergalm takes an additional 1 ¼ hours (3 km). After further 2 hours you reach the Wank summit and the Wankhaus.

From the summit, hikers can return a short walk back to the mountain station of the Wankbahn cable car, where you can take a relaxing ride back down.
