START Alpstizbahn mountain station

FINISH Cogwheel train station Hammersbach

The starting point of the mountain tour is the Alpstizbahn cable car mountain station. From here, the trail leads up towards Alpstiz and Höllentorkopf. After a short time, you reach a junction where you turn right and follow the path towards Rinderscharte and Höllental. After a few minutes uphill, you reach the Höllentalor.

Over steps secured with wooden poles, the route then descends steadily amidst the rock faces of the Höllentorkopf and the foothills of the Alpstiz steadily downhill. The path becomes increasingly stony and continues to descend in hairpin bends along the ridge. After just under an hour, you reach the path from the Hupfleitenjoch. It is then another 20 minutes downhill to the Höllentalangerhütte. The trail leads through the Höllental gorge back to Hammersbach. From there, the cogwheel train takes you comfortably back to the Kreuzeck-/Alpstizbahn station
